Sehr schne und ergreifende GeschichteVon Nadia SchmitEin wahnsinnig schnes Buch- eine wundervoll erzhlte Geschichte.Durch die Erzhlungen kann man sich in die Zeit des Krieges, die Erlebnisse der Soldaten, die Ereignisse, die Hoffnungen und Freude der Landsleute hineinversetzen.Ein Stck Landesgeschichte, eine traumhafte Tradition, die

heute noch zelebriert wird, wird in diesem Buch geschildert.

KurzbeschreibungThe kids here in town havent seen Saint Nicolas or Christmas . . . in almost five years. They dont even know who Saint Nicolas is. And thats just it. Its the kids I really feel sorry for, Stutz said, No Christmas or anything for almost five years? Can you imagine? Its nuts.In December 1944, a handful of American soldiers brought the holiday spirit back to the children of war-weary Wiltz, Luxembourg. Just ten days later, Wiltz was all but destroyed in the Battle of the Bulge, but during the years that followed they never forgot the generosity of their American Saint Nicolas and his GI buddies.Those who survived searched for the American soldiers, in hopes of bringing them back to Wiltz again. After more than thirty years, their prayers were answered. This incredible true story of heroism and hope amidst the horror of war is an uplifting holiday must-read that will inspire you to share kindness, even in the darkest times.

KlappentextUnter der Finsternis und die schmerzhaften Tage von WWII Europa dort gezeigte eine hellen und freudigen Lichterdie Mut und die Mitleid vom 28. Futruppenteilung Signalkorps und seinem Weihnachtsgeschenk zur Stadt von Wiltz, Luxemburg. Die Amerikanisch Str. Kerbe ist auf der wahren Geschichte der Soldaten, die ihre Geschenke von Heim gependet hat, Militrekche basiert, die s gebacken haben, und Obergefreiter Richard Brookins, der Kleider vom rtlichen Priester dann geliehen hat, ist durch Stadt als Str. gefahren. Nicolas zur Freude von Kinder und Eltern hnlich. Folglich beginnt eine Geschichte, die bald von den Versuchen von Krieg und der Entfernung der Zeit umwlkt wird -- umwlkt, aber vergesst nicht. Fr die Geschichte von jenem Tag hat die Herzen der Generationen berhrt, die aus ber die Ozeane zur berraschung von den Lebenn mit uns erreicht haben, heute und in Ehre von der Erinnerung von denjenigen, die zurckgeblieben. English--- Amidst the dark and painful days of WWII Europe there shown a bright and joyous lightthe courage and compassion of the 28th Infantry Division Signal Corps and its Christmas gift to the town of Wiltz, Luxembourg. The American St. Nick is based on the true story of soldiers who donated their gifts from home, military cooks who baked sweets, and Corporal Richard Brookins, who borrowed clothes from the local priest then rode through town as St. Nicolas to the delight of children and parents alike. Thus begins a story soon clouded by the trials of war and the distance of time--clouded, but not forgotten. For the story of that day touched the hearts of generations who reached out across the oceans to the surprise of those living with us today and in honor of the memory of those who stayed behind.
