fell off the shelf in the bookstore. It was the perfect time for "a book". The author speaks so realistically of learning to know the LOVE of God. It is the best news for someone who isn't sure about their "loveability" and who knows too much about an angry and wrathful God. Embracing the Love of God really is a path to the Promise brought to earth 2000 years ago and now again, today, a knowledge of that love by a "real" 20th century person. I was thoroughly blessed even though I read it with trepidation. It was life changing for me.0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Excellent book on God's loveVon Ein KundeThis is the best book I've ever read on receiving the love of God personally. It is simple, concise, and always inspiring, bringing the reader to grasp the awesome gifts of God's love, acceptance, and forgiveness without the guilt or works baggage. I hope James Bryan Smith will be writing many more books. This one is a treasure, and I've already bought a second copy to give away.0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Excellent for both mature Christians and spiritual seekersVon Ein KundeThis book is excellent for both mature Christians and spiritual seekers. It condenses the whole gospel message into one word - love. This book is especially helpful to those who have been hit over the head with condemnation in their experiences with churches and Christians. What freedom to know that God loves me!
