read this book. It's filled with excitement, suspense, and a little romance. Robert Elmer puts very good details in his stories. Patrick, the main character is separated from his family. Along with his new friend Jefferson. Patrick struggles to find his sister Becky, his brother Michael, his mother Sarah McWaid, and his father John McWaid, who was sent from Dublin to Australia. John McWaid was framed for being a Fenian in a bribe scandal, by Mr. Burke and head of chief police. Now Patrick tries to find his parents. So hold on to your seats and enjoy the ride with Patrick and everyone else. 0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. This book is TOTALLY AWESOME!!! Von Cromwell Campbell (campbel7@fnbnet.net) This book starts getting exciting in the FIRST chapter! Patrick's father, John McWaid, is convicted of something he didn't do and is getting sent on a prison ship to Australia. The rest of the McWaid family follows only to get in deep trouble when they find out that the man that wants John McWaid dead, Conrad Burke, followed them TOO!! This series, Adventures Down Under, is full of adventure. 0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Zarko's review Von Ein Kunde I recommend the book Escape to Murray River to any one who likes adventure. The book Escape to Murray River is full of surprise. The only character I did not like was Mr. Burke. I did not like Mr. Burke because he framed Patrick's father and said that he would help him in court.
