Eine romanartige DenkschriftVon Michael ReardonAbschied von Prag ist eine bemerkenswerte Odyssee von einem Holocaust-berlebenden.. Dies ist ein im raschem Tempo geschriebene, fast romanartige Denkschrift. Die zu Grunde liegende Traurigkeit und der Sinn des Verlustes von dieser Denkschrift werden durch den ziemlich unsentimentalen Ton von der Erzählung eher unterstrichen, anstatt dadurch gedmpft zu werden. Ich kann diese Denkschrift nicht nur an jeden empfehlen , der sich fr Memoiren aus jener Zeit Interessiert, sondern auch an jeden, der je Heim und Familie verloren hat.

KurzbeschreibungFarewell to Prague is a memoir set against the turbulent events of the Nazi era in Germany and World War II England. From that moment, the happy life she has known disintegrates.Miriam Darvas has written a powerful and moving memoir of her experiences from 1933 to 1947; the story is ultimately uplifting, but with the inevitable tragedy of events in Europe in that period.
